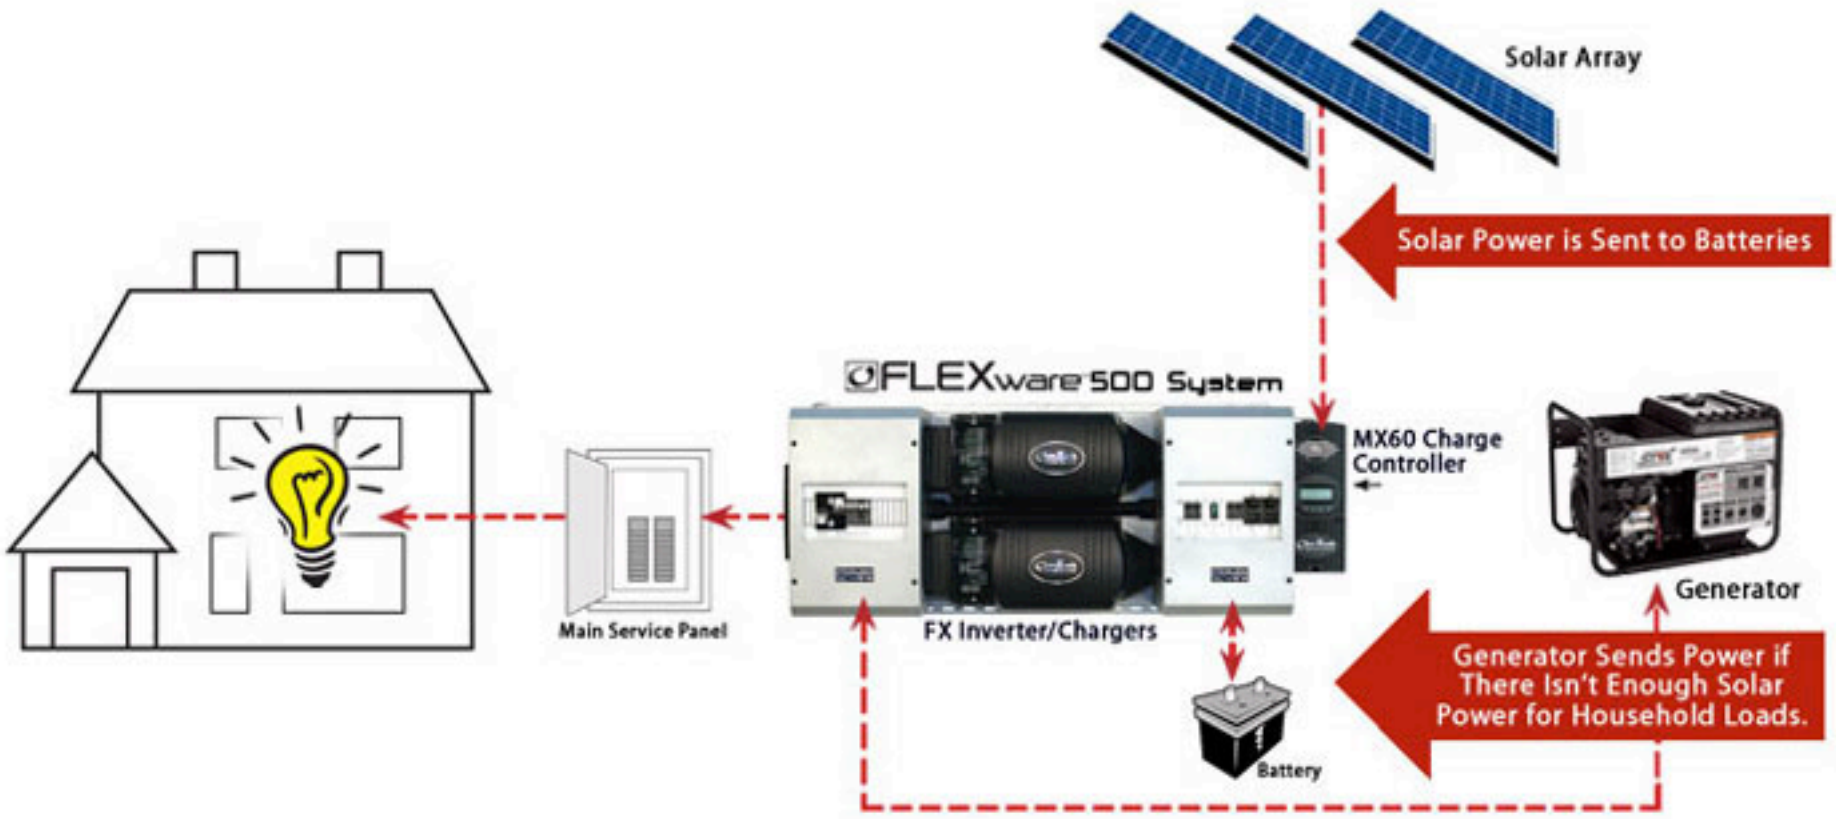
Application

Off Grid House with No Utility Power, Only Solar and Generator


For remote cabins or vacation homes, where utility power is not an option. OutBack's power electronics provide the backbone infrastructure for people producing their own power either through renewable energy sources such as solar and wind power or traditional generators.